Krokbragd Weaving with Johana Cordero of Loom Studio

Krokbragd is Norwegian for crooked path, and is a weft faced bound weave with intricate designs.

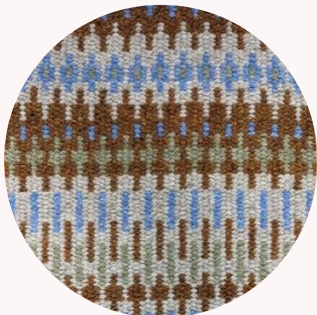

In this workshop series, with textile artist, Johana Cordero, we will learn by Zoom to master Krokbragd patterns, and design our own weaving drafts for a project. An in-person session to learn practical weaving techniques will increase design versatility.

Registration options: Zoom sessions 1 and 3 only: $40 (non members $45). All sessions 1,2 and 3, including the in-person studio tuition day, the fee is $100 (non members $110). Email EHSWorkshops@gmail.com to register

Session 1 by Zoom Sunday 6th October 2024 11am-12.30pm

A session by Zoom, to learn fundamentals of Krokbragd design, and gain inspiration from traditional and contemporary samples. Weaving design with pen and graph paper, or drafting software, and loom set up, will be covered.

Session 2 in person at NPCC Studio Sunday 20th October 2024 10am-3pm

Second session is an in-person, hands-on workshop to foster weaving skills for Krokbragd technique. Participants will weave 2 "mug-rugs" of their own design from the first session, using woollen yarns, with focus on yarn and shuttle management. Participants can use their own yarns, or have the option to buy a Harrisville weft kit for materials fee of $60 from the instructor. Workshop requirements: Must have completed session 1. Ability to independently warp a loom before the session (4 shaft table loom or tapestry loom, ability to do basic weaving and draft design.)

Session 3 by Zoom Saturday 9th November 2024 10am-11am

A final zoom show and tell session for all participants from Sessions 1 and 2 to share their work and learnings.
